

Goals of Western Baseball Hitting Camp

The Camps will teach each player the proper mechanics needed to become a top-notch hitter. This will be reached through detailed swing analysis, proper drills and repetition. Each player will also be taught how to detect common flaws in their mechanics. These camps will provide each player with a challenging, intense, and fun experience.

About the Instructor

Coach Verduzco

begins his tenth year as Head Coach of the Griffons. He has led the Griffons to seven consecutive winning seasons, four conference tournament appearances, and one Regional tournament appearance (2006) dating back to 2003. In 2008, Verduzco coached three Griffons who earned all MIAA honors. He also coached the first Western player ever to earn All American recognition (Adam Carolan 3rd base). The Griffon's, again, hit will return many key offensive players for 2009.

Verduzco will continue to share his techniques with young, local community ball players working to prepare them for the next level.
